ROKs Battle For Key Hill

SEOUL (Friday) (INS)—South Korean infantrymen and 3,500 Chinese were locked in savage hand-to-hand fighting Thursday night for a key hill in the Kumsong Bulge on the east-central Korean front.

Crest of the hill changed hands twice during day-long combat and at nightfall was in possession of the Chinese but the South Koreans grimly held to the south slope and were struggling again to reach the top.

The Kumsong sector battle was the only sizeable action along the 155-mile front, but the battleship New Jersey thundered 16-inch shells into Red coastal positions at the eastern end of the battleline and Allied warplanes blasted Communist buildup areas.

Students Found

SALT LAKE CITY (INS)—Two University of Utah students missing since late Wednesday in a light plane were found huddled out of the mountains Thursday by a ground party on its way to the crash site.

The students, Arthur Scott Horsely, 21, the pilot, and Gordon Taylor, also 21, said their plane was caught in a down-draft over the mountains, and slammed into a hillside.

Chiseling Charged

NEW YORK (INS)—Hayden C. Covington, general counsel of Jehovah's witnesses who are attending their world assembly in New York, charged Thursday that the U.S. Supreme Court "chisels away your freedom."

Compromise Offered

WASHINGTON (INS)—A Defense Department spokesman said Thursday it will be suggested—not ordered—that the Army compromise with the publisher of the banned "Overseas Weekly" to permit distribution of the paper in Europe.

The Pentagon official, who declined to be named, said Lt. Gen. Charles L. Bolte, commander-in-chief of Army headquarters in Heidelberg, Germany, will be asked to "propose" of continuing distribution of the weekly.

Recommendations Made For PMA Committeemen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sens. Griswold and Butler of Nebraska said Thursday they have recommended men for appointment as the state's Production and Marketing Administration (PMA) committeemen.

They declined to make public the names of those they have recommended.

"I have nothing to do with the appointments," Butler told a reporter. "I just recommend some people and the Agriculture Department checks on them and determines whether they want them or which ones they want."

Griswold said about the same.

An Agriculture Department spokesman declined comment except to say that changes have been made in the PMA set-up in other states and it was reasonable to assume that changes might be made in Nebraska.

The PMA committeemen are farmers who work with the Department of Agriculture and advise it on farming problems affecting their states.

Ike Orders New Study On UMT

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower re-established the National Security Training Commission Thursday and directed it to make a new study of the advisability of setting up a universal military training system.

The President sent to the Senate the nominations of Julius Ochs Adler, general manager of the New York Times, Karl T. Compton, chairman of the corporation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Warren Atherton, San Francisco attorney, to be members of the commission.

In a public statement, the President pointed out that these three men would serve with Lt. Gen. Raymond S. McClain and Adm. Thomas C. Kinkaid, the two former military members of the commission. He said he intends to designate Adler as chairman as soon as the Senate confirms nominations.

The President declared that inequities now exist in establishing a military reserve, since it must be composed of veterans of the Korean War and World War II.

Mr. Eisenhower said that as veterans return from Korea they find themselves under legal compulsion to shoulder a six-year reserve obligation.

He added: "I also find that under the present system thousands of our young men have not yet assumed any military obligation to our country. Men who have not been inducted for Korea not only escape the ordeals of that conflict. They also undertake no reserve obligation."

"These inequities appear to me to directly contravene some of the most basic principles of our society."

Velde Group To Subpoena McMichael

WASHINGTON (INS)—The House Un-American Activities Committee voted unanimously Thursday to subpoena a Methodist minister for questioning but insisted it is launching no probe of Communism among the clergy.

Summoned to testify was Rev. Jack R. McMichael of Upper Lake, Calif. He is to appear before the House group next Thursday.

Committee Chairman Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.) said McMichael has been called to "explain, deny or affirm" charges that he was a member of the Communist Party.

Velde added: "It is the wish of the committee that it is not to be inferred by anyone that this action initiates an investigation into the field of religion."

McMichael's name came up during questioning of Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam this week. Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich.) said during the Oxnam hearing that McMichael had been identified as a Communist in testimony given by ex-party leaders Manning Johnson and Leonard Patterson.

Velde said that the vote to call McMichael "is in keeping with the committee policy to investigate individual Communists and members of Communist front groups wherever they might be found."

Oxnam told the House group that a highly confidential source had given him some "information" about McMichael but when he confronted the latter with the "information," McMichael had denied the allegations.

EDC Okayed At The Hague

THE HAGUE (INS)—The Netherlands Chamber of Deputies voted 75 to 11 Thursday to ratify the European Defense Community Treaty.

The chamber also approved an amendment that any subsequent agreements concluded in order to implement the treaty must be subject to parliamentary approval.

The treaty provides for a six-nation common European army composed of troops from West Germany, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

The West German Parliament completed ratification of the EDC treaty and German Peace Contract with the West on May 15.

So far only The Netherlands and Western Germany have taken action on the pact. France has withheld action because of its long-standing fears of German re-militarization.

Seaton Denies Any 'Present' Senate Plans

DENVER (Lincoln Star Special)—Former Sen. Fred Seaton of Hastings, Neb., declared late Thursday he has "no present plans" for running for a seat in the U.S. Senate next year.

His statement was in answer to a published report out of Washington that he might be a candidate for the post held by Senator Dwight Griswold (R-Neb.).

In Denver on business, Seaton arrived here late Thursday from his cabin in the Black Hills near Lead, S. D., where he has been vacationing with his family.

Meanwhile, an Associated Press dispatch out of Washington said both Sens. Griswold and Butler, Nebraska Republicans, expressed surprise that Seaton might enter the race.

House Group Approves Plan For Entry Of 240,000 Aliens

Votes To Lengthen Program

WASHINGTON (INS) — The House Judiciary Committee approved President Eisenhower's proposal for the over-quota entry of 240,000 aliens Thursday, but voted to spread the program over three years instead of two.

Committee action, which was by a vote of 17 to 12, removed one of the major obstacles to scheduled adjournment of Congress by Aug. 1. The House is expected to take up the measure next week.

However, the Senate still has not acted on the legislation. Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) arch-foe of the President's request, conferred with Mr. Eisenhower Thursday but indicated that he has not relented in his opposition.

A plea for quick Senate action came meanwhile from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who called passage of the bill the most "effective" thing the world could do to "dramatize the availability of asylum" to those who want to flee the Iron Curtain.

Urgent Need

Sen. Robert C. Hendrickson (R-NJ) made public a letter in which Dulles declared:

"The recent popular demonstrations against satellite Communist regimes, and other evidences of widespread unrest in (eastern) Europe reveal the importance of anti-Communist pressures there and the urgent need of our demonstrating in every possible way our interest in and sympathy with the peoples of that area."

Although the House bill calls for the same number of immi-

Former Lincoln Woman's Husband Reported Missing

Pvt. Jesse Singleton, 22, of Springdale, Ark., was reported missing in action in Korea since July 14, according to word received from the War Department by Lincoln relatives.

His wife, the former Lois Wixson of Lincoln, now lives at Ft. Smith, Ark. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wixson, 2317 So. 9th.

Pvt. Singleton has been in the army nearly a year and was in Korea since March. He and Mrs. Singleton lived in Lincoln about two years before he entered the army.

grants requested by Mr. Eisenhower, the break-down differs. The committee provided for these special quota admissions: Sixty thousand expellees of German ethnic origin; 60,000 Italians; 25,000 Greeks; 25,000 Dutch; 35,000 Iron Curtain refugees in Germany and Austria; 15,000 refugees in other European countries and Iran.

Eight thousand displaced persons who previously applied for admission; 3,000 Polish Army veterans in England; 2,000 Portuguese; 4,000 orphans under 10 years of age adopted by U.S. citizens; and 3,000 European refugees in China.

A judiciary subcommittee had also approved the admission of 3,000 Chinese refugees, 3,000 Japanese Nationals and 2,000 Arab refugees in the Middle East.

BOYS TOWN ADOPTIONS

These provisions were stricken from the bill by the full House committee, which also increased the number of orphans to be allowed into the U.S. by 1,000. These extra 1,000 are expected to be Korean children to be adopted by Boys Town in Nebraska.

THESE LEGS ARE ONE-DIMENSIONAL?—Rita Stazi, Miss Italy in the recent Miss Universe contest, was quoted upon her arrival in Rome as having this to say about Christiane Martel (left) of France, the winner: "Why, she has no legs... I mean she has no ankles—her legs are one dimensional." Miss Martel, now at Universal-International studio in Hollywood where she has a movie contract, said only: "I do not understand—the judges picked me as Miss Universe and I guess I am." But Myrna Hansen (right), Miss U.S.A., who finished second, said she thought Miss Stazi ought to show "a little more sportsmanship." (AP Wirephoto.)

Tariff Committee Named By State Motor Carriers

The Nebraska Motor Carriers Association has named a tariff committee to meet monthly to consider any rate changes proposed by its members. The group has requested Harry King, rate expert of the State Railway Commission, to meet with the committee for consultation.

Commissioner Joe Brown explained Thursday that this does not mean that commission decisions will be made by the committee, but that it is hoped the industry in this way can settle many differences of opinion before they reach the hearing stage.

The committee considerations will be given before applications are filed and after filing they are open to protest by any interested person, Brown ex-

The State Department of Agriculture reported Thursday a Kansas City man was fined at Geneva for allegedly bringing bees into Nebraska without permits.

Director Ed Hoyt identified the bee owner as Roy F. King.

Brown said it was the opinion of the commission that on issues that are non-controversial outside of the industry, many hearings can be avoided if the industry reaches an agreement before applications are filed.

Slowly, Step By Step

The late Carl Gray put in a whole of a lot of work convincing Nebraskans they should develop better-blooded dairy herds in this state. Recently the dairy industry has taken its lumps, but over the long pull the income Nebraskans have realized from dairy products has been a substantial sideline in Nebraska's farm program.

Mr. Gray, of course, had a great deal of help. The College of Agriculture of the University of Nebraska, other agencies, organizations and individuals marched side by side with him.

It takes this type of inspired leadership if a state is to realize its full potentials. Nebraska has been most fortunate in this respect in the character and the caliber of its citizens, many of whom have made distinguished contributions to the welfare of a rural commonwealth.

Two items of interest have been peeking out from the news columns in recent weeks from widely scattered sections of Nebraska. They reflect the growing interest among farmers in improved types of seed, and particularly they tell of the increasing use of commercial fertilizer upon fields which have been cropped continuously in these years of stress and strain. Since 1940 Nebraska has produced a towering mountain of wheat to satisfy its own needs and to feed hungry peoples in many sections of the world. There has not been a single year since 1940 when Nebraska did not harvest in excess of 200 million bushels of corn. Then in addition to these two main crops, each year has seen the harvesting of enormous quantities of other small grains.

A right smart job of production by any measure that could be applied. Wheat and corn together, Nebraska has produced more grain than any single western European country, although at the peak of his power Mussolini pushed Italy to a single record harvest just short of 300 million bushels. There should be a lot of satisfaction among thoughtful Nebraskans that out on the farms of this state there is mounting appreciation of the drain on fertility resulting from these continuing years of high production. To do what has been done and at the same time to practice the soundest measures of soil conservation represents a real Nebraska achievement.

Floete's Appointment

Across the river in neighboring Iowa, appointment of a former Lincoln man, Franklin Floete, to a key post in the Eisenhower administration seems to have stirred up discussion. What has Mr. Floete done to deserve recognition, Iowa Republicans of long

Of Men And Things

This century of American progress will go down in history as the electrical age, among other distinguishing traits of 100 years filled with wonders. There is shaping up in Washington at this time a battle destined to leave its imprints upon a nation which by circumstance has become the greatest stabilizing force in the world.

Mark Childs discusses it on this page. He writes about the amazing plight in which Gov. Tom Dewey finds himself as the result of a recent action of the lower house of Congress. It passed a bill which in practical results would give five electric companies a stranglehold upon the power (electricity) which can be developed at Niagara Falls on the St. Lawrence River. Dewey wants that development to come through a New York State Power Authority as a substitute for federal development instead of by private enterprise. If what has been happening can be taken as a guide to congressional (and possibly Eisenhower) viewpoint, the New York governor is out of luck. In six short months the private utilities have crawled into the driver's seat, seemingly with the blessing of the Eisenhower administration. Mr. Childs tells of the extraordinary length to which Dewey is going to defeat this measure introduced by a New York Republican congressman, supported by the overwhelming majority of New York's big congressional delegation, and certainly in line with the expressed views of administration insofar as it is possible to tie that administration down today.

If Mr. Childs gives a fair outline of Gov. Dewey's plea for public development of Niagara power, then Tom Dewey either is piling his punches or he himself does not understand the basic argument for the program he favors. He pleads for public power on the grounds that it escapes taxes, which is not entirely true. TVA, for example, pays taxes in its region to school districts and to other political subdivisions in the state in the form of payments in lieu of taxes. We do that in Nebraska and the various public power agencies in this state plunk down a whale of a lot of money each year. The federal levy is something else again.

When the debts incurred in the building of the great dams and in the hydro-electric developments such as is contemplated on the St. Lawrence are paid, public power is free for all time from debt service. Not so with private development. Its corporate structure remains intact, a charge against power.

Requirements for dividends and bond interest continue year after year.

It is that which stands in the path of the cheap power of which Gov. Dewey dreams in the realization of full development of New York state and New England. It is not politics, we assume, to talk about the diminishing debt service in public development providing a foundation for cheaper and cheaper power. But that is the goal every sound and properly managed development of public power should keep in mind. Many of those closely associated with it seem to lose sight of it at times. If undertaken privately, the user of electricity must recognize that his hopes for cheaper power ride out the window on the requirement for continuing dividends or bond interest.

This is where the cry of creeping Socialism comes in. We could apply it to the postal service, to the highways built to serve the people, to the schools and colleges, and to a great many developments that have fastened themselves upon the American people to which they are devoted and justly so. Where expanding irrigation is of vital concern, as it is in Nebraska and in other western states, public power becomes even more important than in usually well-watered New York and New England. Mr. Childs speaks with great restraint when he suggests the approach to natural resources and resource development as it is shaping up in the Eisenhower administration is its greatest weakness. What is happening will arouse the nation when its busy people finally come awake.

GOP To Face Senate Fight If Taft Retires

WASHINGTON—GOP leaders don't like to admit it, but they are sadly convinced that the ailing Mr. Republican, Sen. Robert A. Taft, will be forced to retire within six months.

This has touched off a backstage battle over control of the Senate which the Republicans now run by a slim majority of one. Taft's successor would be appointed by a Democrat, Ohio's Gov. Frank Lausche. However, Democratic leaders have already consulted Lausche privately, and urged him to appoint a Republican. They explained that the Democrats don't want responsibility for the legislative logjam that is building up in the Senate. In the end, they figure they will gain more votes by leaving the Senate in GOP hands.

As a result, Lausche is considering Bob Taft's younger brother, Charlie, for the expected vacancy.

MCCARTHY-GO-ROUND

Sen. McCarthy is trying to cover up his association with Ralph Moore, a shady commodity speculator, who was kicked off the commodity exchange. Inside fact, however, is that Moore has been acting as a front for McCarthy on the commodity market. When the senator collected $10,000 to fight Communists and diverted it instead to buying soybeans in his brother's name, the applications were made out in Moore's handwriting.

McCarthy has hinted darkly that Father Leon Sullivan, a Catholic missionary, received an ovation of Communist propaganda while he languished in a Chinese prison cell. What upset the senator was Father Sullivan's comment that he would rather return to his Red prison than see "McCarthyism" rise in America. The courageous Catholic declared: "My missionary career in China ended in a Communist court in which accusations were taken as facts, charges as proofs, and in which the police announced that 'defense is not necessary; we never make a mistake; who we arrest you, you're guilty.' As a result of that experience, I cling desperately to a principle that is one of the foundation stones of our democratic way of life, the principle that a man is innocent until proved guilty. . . . If you must betray democracy in order to save it, why bother?"

Jewish leaders were outraged over McCarthy's charge that Sen. Mike Monroney, Oklahoma Democrat, is anti-Semitic. They not only regard Monroney as a fair-minded American, but they point out that all the professional Jew haters—from Gerald L. K. Smith on down—are backing McCarthy. . . . Senators re-

MARQUIS CHILDS

Dewey Middle Courses Niagara Power Issue

WASHINGTON—In any rating of the political horsepower of the leaders of the Republican party, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey would stand very high. This is not to say that he is a well-beloved figure. No one would claim that for the brisk, self-contained careerist who has demonstrated repeatedly that he knows what he wants and how to get it.

But in terms both of votes and ability as an administrator, the governor would rate among the top four or five. More than any single individual he is responsible for the fact that Dwight D. Eisenhower is president. With the huge Republican majority in New York last fall, he showed his grip on the state.

Yet Dewey's influence in Washington today would seem to be negligible. In a mood of exceptional humility, he has paid not one but two visits in person to the capital in this period season to try to get approval for a rather modest piece of legislation. That is a bill which would authorize New York state to undertake a $400,000,000 power development on the Niagara River.

Apparently the most he can hope to gain is to block another bill covering the Niagara project which he opposes. This is the measure introduced in the house by a Republican congressman from New York, William E. Miller, providing for development of the project by five private utility companies.

The Miller bill passed the House by a large majority. On one vote four out of 27 Republicans on the New York state delegation voted with Dewey. On a second vote only one New York Republican voted against the private development.

The governor has taken the unusual course of sending a personal appeal to the Senate Public Works Committee urging that the right to carry forward the big hydro-electric power project be granted to the New York State Power Authority. This is an extremely interesting document, signed by the lieutenant governor, the attorney general and state legislative leaders, in which Dewey sets out to define a middle-of-the-road position on public power.

He takes a strong stand against federal development, crediting his administration with holding off the federal government. But he is equally opposed to the surrender of such a great natural resource as the Niagara River "for private exploitation."

port that most of their pro-McCarthy mail consists of unsigned, crackpot letters, railing against Communists and Jews.

McCarthy's strategy backfired when he threatened to sue the Americans for Democratic Action and Beacon Press for distributing copies of the Senate report on his finances. He expected them to hide behind congressional immunity, since the report is an official Senate document. Instead, they offered to waive all immunity and invited him to sue.

McCarthy's crocodile tears over the three Democrats who walked out on his committee don't impress fellow senators. They remember how he walked out on the Malmédy investigation, when information turned up that McCarthy's defense of the Nazi war criminals was inspired by German Communists who hoped to undermine U.S. prestige in Germany. As late as March 20, McCarthy sided with GOP Sen. John Williams of Delaware who quit a Senate Finance subcommittee in protest over the chairman's dictatorial tactics. Commented McCarthy: "I should like to congratulate the senator from Delaware for taking the action he has taken in removing himself from that subcommittee."

WASHINGTON WHIRL

The White House has received a confidential report that President Eisenhower's famous popularity is on the wane. The report says that voters who cast their ballots for Ike are no longer boasting of it. . . . The report blamed Ike's declining popularity largely on skidding farm prices and rising interest rates. The President still has strong support for his economy program, the report says, but people are afraid he has cut the Air Force too drastically.

The volcano that suddenly burst loose in the Aleutians was worse than the public has been told. All air lanes were literally blotted out for miles, grounding both commercial and Air Force planes in the strategic Aleutian area.

Our atomic energy plants have been consuming uranium so fast that they are now forced to use low-grade uranium ore. This will increase operating costs terrifically next year. . . . To speed up work, the government will build eleven more uranium processing plants during the next twelve months.

The Bonneville Dam contract turning government power over to the private utilities is being written and rewritten. Secretary of the Interior McKay still wants to go through with the plan but seems scared to death of Congress.

Just Think How Ben Hogan Would Do It

By MONA B. PARKER

Summertime . . . hot dogs . . . baseball . . .

Spectators at a Hastings game now think they've seen everything, with a hit-and-run driver making off with one of the baseballs. At the fairgrounds, the other night the ball went sailing over the grandstand, over the fence, and right into a passing motorist's back window. He drove right along, taking the ball with him . . .

An Ogallala youngster went to an evening game and when the entertainment was over and he failed to return home, his parents became somewhat perturbed. They looked everywhere, even had the lights turned on again at the ball field. Finally they summoned the fire department and had the whistle blown, and in a few minutes the boy came running home. The seven-year-old had climbed up into the public address booth to see the game better and had fallen asleep. The fire whistle awakened him . . .

Two Lyons girls are assured of plenty of the swoop-and-swat sport for the entire summer. Early in the season Magdalene Schulze and Susann Whitacre found a roll of paper money lying on the ground. They gave it to the gatekeeper who had dropped the more than $40 from his money apron. As a result of their honesty, they were voted free season passes.

Arch Jarrell knew the Grand Island golfer who played his first game in over three weeks. Before each shot, the golfer reported, he tried to think just how Ben Hogan would play it. Result, he came in with a 49—which was precisely the same score he had had three weeks before when he didn't give the eminent Mr. Hogan a thought.

Earl Marvin tells in his Beatrice Sun column of the Nebraska farmer who has completed his grain harvest with a harvester purchased by his father in 1894 for $115.

"That's an old-fashioned way of doing things," smiles Editor Marvin. "The conventional way is to let machinery stand out exposed to the weather, and it becomes useless soon after the final payment is made."

A group of inquisitive youngsters visited the Oakland Independent office one day and noted the oily condition of a portion of the stockroom floor. It was explained to them that the building had at one time been a harness shop and that the oil came from the leather.

Inquired Young America: "What's harness?"

Jim Cornwell was teasing Stanton Citizen George Pugh about his longevity. Mr. Pugh is 80, could pass for a lively 50. The joke, however, turned on the Register editor. Mr. Pugh told him he wasn't quite so spry as his brother Tom, in Ohio, recently turned 90—and that their elder brother, Jim, is past 100.

Mrs. Morris Payne paused in her Hooper Sentinel column to sniff just a little disdainfully at a Kansas sister-in-law who always refers to our corn fields as "corn patches."

His Responsibility

Denver, Colo.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The book-burning controversy is indicative of liberty's plight in America.

What President Eisenhower said to Dartmouth students about not joining the book-burners was all to the good. It would have been more convincing, however, if Eisenhower's own record were less spotty. Under the American Constitution, the President is ultimately responsible for the decisions and action of the members of his cabinet. Regardless of what he said at Dartmouth, the President cannot escape responsibility for the "book-burning" perpetrated by his State Department.

As an American worker and one who subscribes to the principles and program of the Socialist Labor party of America, I hold that we should insist that the President and other officeholders carry out their oath to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

A belligerent driverless jeep took after Ralph Young and when they were pulled apart, Farmer Young had a cracked leg bone and numerous other cuts and bruises. Mr. Young had driven the vehicle to cropland he had rented southeast of Taylor, parked it on the hillside, and went about his potato-spraying. Some while later he stopped to talk to son Larry who was cultivating corn. It was then that the aggressive little car slipped its moorings, started downhill and wedged its victim between it and the cultivator. As of the last report, Mr. Young is traveling around via crutches instead of jeep.

Recent Rains Boost Outlook Of Harlan County Corn

Falls City Crop Said Very Good

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Farm Editor

Harlan County corn was described Thursday as growing rapidly and in good condition—for the time being anyway.

County Agent Rundall Peterson said that between one and two inches of rain which fell in the county in the last two weeks was "just what the corn needed." Peterson said, "The rains have all been local but they have kept the corn growing."

Before the rain, he said, the corn crop in the county was beginning to feel the effects of the hot, dry weather. "Now the corn has snapped out of it," Peterson added.

In Lincoln, A. E. Anderson, state-federal crop statistician, said, "If this rain keeps fooling around we might get a good crop yet." In its present condition, Anderson said, the crop could develop well through a dry August if it could only receive some more rain before the end of this month.

"But we could get a bumper crop if we got good rain all through August," he added. Anderson said the corn in the state is about one fourth tasseled. Some rootworm has been reported in various parts of the state, but reports of corn borers have been light this year.

The corn in the Falls City area looks unusually good, and we should be able to weather from 10 days to two more weeks of dry weather before it gets hurt."

This was how T. D. Aitken, Richardson County Agent, summed up the current outlook on the corn in that area. Aitken said that the county has received a steady supply of scattered showers in the last two weeks. The central and northern sections of the county have come off best in the rain, receiving an average of two and a half inches in the last two weeks.

Plan Double Rites At Bruning For Victims Of Gas Explosion

BRUNING, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—Double funeral services for David Wilken, 5, and his brother, Roger, 3, victims of a gas explosion in their home, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Trinity Lutheran Church in Bruning.

HOUSE LIFTED — Marks on this vent pipe at the back of the Wilken house (arrows) show that the house was raised 10 inches off the foundation by the force of the explosion which resulted in the deaths of David, 5, and Roger, 3, at Bruning, when their father Rex Wilken attempted to relight a hot water heater. The blast also blew out most of the windows in the house, wrecked bathroom fixtures and scattered foundation blocks. (Star Staff Photo)

Meanwhile, the boys' father, Rex Wilken, 31-year-old hardware store employee, continues in "fair condition" in an Omaha hospital. He was badly burned from the chest up and suffered severe leg burns.

The explosion occurred when the father, accompanied by his sons to the basement, lit a match in the gas filled room. He was attempting to light a gas water heater.

Wilken's wife and six-year-old daughter, Claudia, both in the kitchen at the time of the blast, escaped with minor burns and shock.

In addition to their parents and sister, the boys are survived by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Taylor of Route 5 Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. George Wilken of Hebron; a great grandmother, Mrs. F. G. Everett of Garland; a great grandfather, Charles W. Taylor of Portland, Ore., aunts, Mrs. Vern Anderson, Mrs. Harold Anderson and Darlene Taylor, all of Lincoln, and May Jean Taylor of Phoenix, Ariz., and an uncle, Everett Taylor of Lincoln.

Defense Quizzes Possible Jurors In Trial Of Fish

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—The defense began questioning prospective jurors Thursday in the first degree murder trial of James LeRoy Fish, but agreement on a jury was not immediately in sight.

The prosecution, which began examining witnesses Wednesday, had tentatively picked 18 prospective jurors from the 82 men it had questioned.

Five of the 18 were eliminated Thursday by the defense and more of them were expected to be scratched Friday, probably making it necessary to seek more veniremen.

Fish is charged with the May 30 slaying of State Safety Patrolman Vernon Rolfs.

Steinbock Is Dead; Railroad Engineer

WAHOO, Neb. (AP)—E. W. Steinbock, 56, Burlington Railroad agent here the past five years, has died unexpectedly of a heart attack.

Steinbock was helping place an empty freight car at the Farmers Co-op Elevator when he was stricken. He died three hours later at Saunders County Community Hospital.

Over 4,000 Persons Watch Tractor Demonstrations

Farmers Are Given Safety Tips

Five upsets proved to more than 4,000 farmers attending the second annual Farm Tractor Field Day Thursday at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture that it's best to use care when driving a tractor.

The "upsetting" demonstration was presented to show how easily tractor accidents can happen and how little time there is to leave the seat of the tractor once it starts tipping.

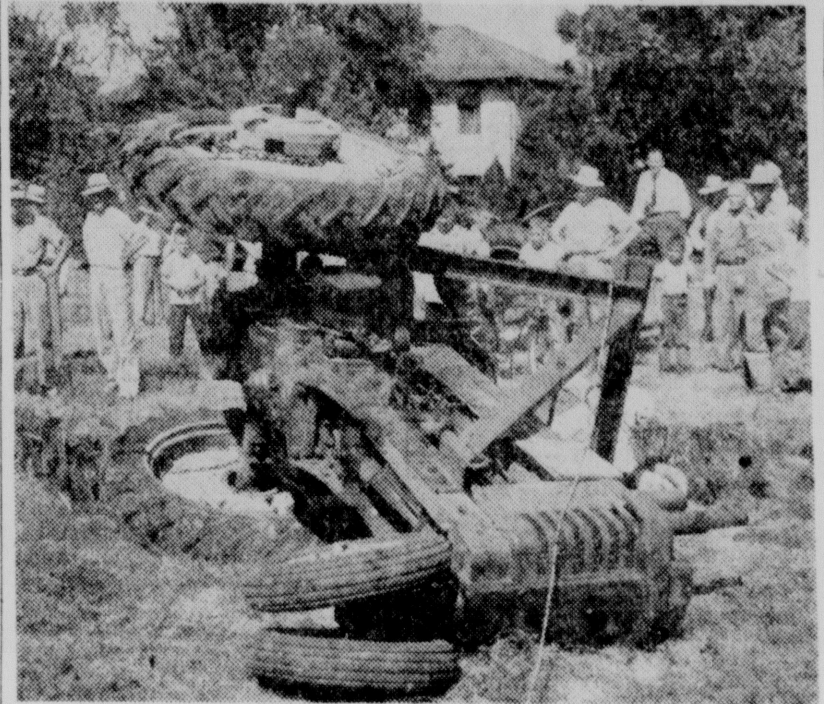

In the first demonstration, a heavy load was hitched to the tractor's axle. The load did not move and "Jughead" — the dummy driver — was crushed when the tractor turned over backwards.

The tractor was backed into deep holes from which it couldn't pull itself out—causing another upset. The holes were similar to a washout in a field.

When the tractor was mired in a mudhole, the demonstrators placed a post in front of the drive wheels, and chained them to a post. Result: another upset.

An upset occurred when a three-wheeled tractor hit an eight-inch block on level ground. The tractor was traveling at six miles per hour.

When the brakes were applied sharply to one wheel of a four-wheel tractor, which was traveling at eight miles per hour, an upset was caused.

TRACTOR UPSETS DEMONSTRATED—To show the more than 4,000 farmers attending the second annual Tractor Field Day at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture Thursday how easily tractor upsets occur, a special upset demonstration was held. Above, a three-wheel tractor hit a wooden block with one rear wheel. The wheel picked up speed and the tractor upset. "Jughead," the dummy driver, is thrown against the rear wheel. (U of N Photo.)

Another feature of the afternoon program was the parade of the 17 new tractors tested at the Tractor Testing Laboratory. L. F. Larson, engineer in charge of the program, explained the performance of the machines in the tests.

C. W. Smith of the Agriculture Engineering Department told the farmers how they could get up to three horsepower increase in their farm tractors simply by cleaning the air cleaner, adjusting the valves, carburetor, and other simple maintenance operations.

Highlight of the morning program was a tractor fuel contest—using gasoline, diesel fuel, and propane.

The diesel burning tractor provided the most pounds pull per gallon of fuel. Gasoline ranked second, propane third.

Tractor Field Day was sponsored by the University of Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service, the Agricultural Experiment Station, the Departments of Ag Engineering and Vocational Education.

Oil Pipeline Terminal Set For Geneva

GENEVA, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—Opening steps are being made here for the construction of an oil products loading station which will serve as the terminal of a 226-mile pipeline into southern Nebraska from oil fields in Kansas.

The terminal is designed to provide speedier and more diversified service to petroleum jobbers in a radius of about 200 miles of the Hebron terminal. Its construction, expected to be completed early next year, will bring the flow of several types of petroleum products within easier trucking distance of Nebraska points.

It will also eliminate much of the traffic from gasoline transports entering the state from Kansas in this area. Highway 81, along which the terminal will be built, is one of the main arteries of gasoline transportation in the state.

The terminal will be built on a 32-acre plot of land purchased on the farm of Chester Chaney north of Geneva. It will consist, at the present, of eight storage tanks with a capacity of 292,000 barrels of gas and oil.

The Nichols Construction Co. of Geneva is planning to bid on earth moving work in connection with the terminal. W. H. Kinder, mayor of Geneva, said after talking with a member of the construction firm that the job would require moving between 25,000 and 30,000 cubic yards of earth.

The terminal will be constructed with storage tanks housed in cells which will be separated by earth walls. The tanks will also be housed on different levels to reduce the danger from fire to a minimum.

The mayor said he expects to see the heavy flow of gasoline transports past Geneva to be greatly reduced after the terminal opens. Local persons also feel that this will reduce the hazard to school children crossing the highway.

The pipeline will connect the terminal points with fields almost as far south as the Arkansas and Oklahoma area. Companies expected to move oil over the line include the Derby Oil Co., Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., El Dorado Refining, Vickers Petroleum, National Co-operative Refinery.

Ralph Kinder of Geneva said that the Kanab Pipe Line Co., of El Dorado, Kan., will handle construction of the pipeline and terminal. The construction job will mean that about 15 construction families will be brought into Geneva by the Kanab Co. The completed terminal, however, will require a working staff of about 15.

Bids on phases of the project will be delivered Saturday and actual construction work will be under way by the middle of next week. The Kanab Co. has reportedly been authorized to raise $25,000,000 for the project through issuance of bonds.

Kearney Gets TV Go-Ahead

WASHINGTON (P)—The Communications Commission granted a permit Thursday for a television station to the Bi-States Co., of Kearney, Neb. The permit is for channel 13.

Previously the Commission dismissed an application for a new television station made by the Central Nebraska Broadcasting Corp., for channel 13. The applicant requested the dismissal.

A group of Holdrege and Alma men make up the Bi-State Co., which applied for a television station to serve an area in a radius of 75 miles of Kearney.

Harold Hamilton, general manager of Bi-States, said at the time the application was filed last March, he hoped to have the station in time to screen the World Series for residents of the area in October. Plans are to build the station near the Junction of Highways 6 and 14 east of Axtell. The station will have 56 kilowatts of power and will employ a 500-foot tower topped by a 75-foot antenna. It expects to serve Holdrege, Grand Island, Kearney and Hastings.

Soviets Send 4 Divisions And Planes From East Germany To Poland

Semyonov Protest Is Rejected

BERLIN (INS)—Western intelligence sources reported Thursday night that the Soviets have evacuated three of the largest jet airfields in East Germany and sent the planes and four Red divisions to Poland.

These sources said that the planes, including hundreds of Russian-built MLG-15's, were moved from the fields four days ago when there were reports of unrest and fights between Poles and Reds.

The four Red division were reported to have vacated a camp 40 miles north of Berlin. The outgoing troops told residents of the area they were "going to Poland."

Conant Rejections Are Solid

At the Kannberg Soviet army camp near Templin, 40,000 Red soldiers pulled out a week ago. Two thousand remained to pack heavy equipment, enabling Germans to ransack the camp of doorknobs, windows and lockers. Meantime, U. S. High Commissioner James B. Conant rejected the Tuesday protest by Soviet High Commissioner Vladimir Semyonov, which termed illegal American efforts to feed hungry East Germans.

As the battle for food continued, Dr. Conant charged that Semyonov has made a number of statements "contrary to the truth" in his protest of emergency shipments of food to the east sector of Berlin.

Conant asserted he could "only suppose" that his Russian counterpart had been misinformed on the true situation.

Conant declared the distribution of food to the inhabitants of the Soviet sector of Berlin had been a spontaneous action on the part of the West Berlin residents and officials to relieve distress among the Soviet sector Germans.

Conant declared that the U. S. offer of free food for East Germany was made in good faith and still stands and that the first shipments are en route. He said they will be turned over to the West German federal government for shipment to the Soviet zone.

Parliament To Meet

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's Communist government, fighting a billowing silent resistance movement, Thursday called the Volkskammer parliament to meet July 29-30.

The Volkskammer will "accept a government declaration and engage in discussions afterward," the official announcement said. It did not specify what the leaders had in mind, but the government has been concentrating on efforts to crush what it calls "the fascist underground," the resistance which the Soviet Army itself failed to kill when it suppressed the June 17 rebellion.

State Surveyor Hugh Dillon said Thursday there have been at least two "nibbles" from parties interested in purchase of the former Milford Home property.

The property includes a hospital building valued at $50,000, and 38 acres of land.

Fist Shaking Is Okay, But Touch Nets $1 Fine

A legal technicality brought a $1 fine in Lancaster County Court for R. E. Jackson of Oklahoma.

Jackson was charged with assault and battery by L. W. Durbin of 1948 No. 70th. He pleaded not guilty June 13.

Jackson appeared with his attorney and pleaded guilty. Judge Herbert Ronin related that the two men were arguing over a dog and shaking their fists at each other.

Jackson told the court he touched Durbin which adds

Naturally a living room is no place to stack dishes. But this specially posed photograph shows how dishes can get in the way of things you enjoy—and the number of dishes shown here is about the weekly average for a family of four. Dishwashing is a big job!

Let this can help get your dishes out of the way!
For fast, efficient dishwashing—with or without wiping—no washing powder can touch this new Lux Liquid Detergent. One canful will wash more dishes than several boxes of the most popular laundry powder. And thrifty Lux Liquid is almost as mild on your hands as Lux Toilet Soap.
Women tell us that washing dishes with new Lux Liquid Detergent makes even sticky pots and pans seem less of a chore.
This can in your kitchen is the next best thing to a dishwashing machine.
And no wonder! Lux Liquid is designed especially for dishwashing—not for doing Monday's wash. It gets the job done quickly because it soaks the dishes clean. Gets between the clinging grease and the dish. Dissolves the grease.
Just a few drops wash the dishes. One dishwashing will show you how little you have to use.
Now on top of being fast, thorough and thrifty, this new Lux Liquid Detergent is mild. It's almost as mild as Lux Toilet Soap—imagine that! Lux Liquid smells nice, too, and never makes you sneeze.
You get a Lever Brothers guarantee, of course. You can have your money back if you aren't pleased with the quick, shining results. But we honestly think you'll love it!
LEVER BROTHERS
Remember—it's Lux Liquid for dishes. Lux Flakes for nylons. You can double the life of your nylons with Lux Flakes care instead of harsh washday treatment in washday suds. If you want to, you can prove to yourself how gentle Lux Flakes care saves stockings. Get two new pairs. Wash one pair with any washday product. Wash the other pair the Lux way—in pure, gentle Lux Flakes. Do this for several weeks—and you'll see the difference Lux Flakes care makes.

CO Training Camps Held By Dr. Dick

By SALLY ADAMS
Star Staff Writer

Training conscientious objectors to be conscientious co-operators was the objective of a six-month world tour recently made by Dr. Everett Dick, director of Medical Cadet Corps training for the Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

Dr. Dick, 4612 Stockwell, spent several weeks conducting medical cadet training camps in

DR. DICK . . . Makes world tour. (Star Photo.)

Hawaii, Japan, Korea, Taiwan and the Philippines. He said the camps were held to "help orient the civilian and make him military conscious. They teach him how he should represent his faith in the army so he won't be thought of as a gold-bricker."

First Aid

The camps, set up with the aid of church officials and military advisers, train volunteers in first aid, medical corps organization and military tactics. Number of men attending varied from 50 in Hawaii and Japan to 110 in Korea.

Language proved no barrier in Japan, Dr. Dick observed. Japanese drill commands are patterned after the U.S., so Dr. Dick learned Japanese translations and conducted drills himself. To combat the language problem in Korea and Taiwan, Dr. Dick enlisted the aid of natives.

As an example of the semi-official recognition given the training program, Gen. Maxwell Taylor allowed all church members to meet with Dr. Dick in Seoul. The Eighth Army chaplain also escorted him to the front lines and evacuation centers to inspect work done by medical corpsmen.

Filipinos Friendly

"Of all the people I met," Dr. Dick stated, "the Filipinos were the most friendly. They say the Spanish gave them the church, but the Americans gave them the public schools."

Dr. Dick visited church leaders in Indonesia, India and the Near East following the training camp sessions. In India, Russian "American imperialist" propaganda seems to have gotten in, he said. American missionaries feel they will gradually be pushed out of India.

The Lincolnton said there was much more unrest in Indonesia than when the Dutch were in control.

The program of medical cadet corps training was developed by Dr. Dick in 1934 at Union College with the aid of World War 1 veterans and the Nebraska National Guard. It was then officially adopted by the Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

Roll Out The Red Carpet—There Are Guests Galore

IT WOULD take yards and yards of plushy red carpet to greet all of the guests who have arrived—and who are arriving—in Lincoln within the next few days—They come from the east, the west, the south, and from here it looks as though there is a merry, merry time ahead for all and sundry.

Take this week end, for instance—We suspect that there will be more than a little activity among the Kappa Kappa Gamma circles of a few years ago—for one of the sisters, Mrs. K. J. Plants (the former Marjorie Souders) will be in town—the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Perkins—And let us tell you a few interesting sidelights concerning Mrs. Plants—Her home is in Riverside, Conn. and naturally she has a husband—and there are two young Plants—young Kenneth, who at the moment is attending camp in Vermont—and Martha, who will come to Lincoln with her mother on Saturday—In addition to being wife, mother and homemaker, Mrs. Plants has a most exciting world as a careerist—Until a year or two ago you probably listened to considerable of Mrs. Plants' handiwork—including the show "Truth or Consequence"—You see, Mrs. Plants was associated with an advertising agency that handled a variety of radio shows, and Mrs. Plants' particular task was to make the commercials sound most inviting—which she did—and which she still does—but now for TV as well as radio. Whenever you hear a unique jingle, maybe set to music—maybe not—just think of Mrs. Plants—it's probably her creation.

THIS SEEMS to be our day for art—one variety or another—This time it has to do with Mrs. Robert L. Pierce who, with Mrs. Pierce and their children, Robert Jr., Tommy and Virginia Sue, came from Dallas, Tex., a few days ago for a visit with Mr. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Pierce. Mr. Pierce is an artist, and has his own studio in Dallas, Tex. On the door it says—"Advertising Designer," and that really is his profession—doing beautiful drawings for those expensive-looking advertisements one finds here and there throughout Texas—But we hear that Mr. Pierce also goes in for the more serious art and we'll venture a guess that one day we will find some very excellent work by Robert Pierce in exhibition galleries.

THEN WE heard that Mrs. Richard Ryman (Marjorie Leese—Alpha Phi) and her young daughter, Carol, have arrived from Denver to spend a few weeks as the guests of Mrs. Ryman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Leese—

AND SOME of the very exciting news of the morning has to do with next Tuesday, and the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Branch Jr., and their two daughters, Suzanne and Sarah, from Rochester, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Branch and their daughters are planning in for a week's stay as the guests of Mr. Branch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Branch.

ARRIVING Thursday evening for a week-end visit in Lincoln were Mr. and Mrs. Tib J. Campbell of Newton, Ia., who are the house guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ghormley.

HEAR THAT Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Kratz of Washington, D. C. are in town—the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kratz—and that the family group will be augmented soon by Mr. and Mrs. Kent Kratz (Betty Williams—Tri-Delta) and their two children, Paul and Patti, who are coming from Oakland, Cal., and who also will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kratz—

UNDERSTAND that Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Norvell (she is the former Anne Whitham) will be arriving next Tuesday or Wednesday from Dallas, Tex., for a visit with Mrs. Norvell's father, Dr. Roy Whitham, and Mrs. Whitham.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Norvell, whose marriage took place in Dallas, Tex., on June 20, Dr. and Mrs. Whitham will be host and hostess at a reception from 7:30 o'clock on—on next Thursday evening at their home.

EARLY AUGUST will be an exciting time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Smith—their three daughters and their families will be arriving—From Riverside, Conn., will come Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crabill (Dorothy Smith) and their two children, Linda and Bobby who are expected on August 5—From the opposite coast—California, just a few days later, will come Mr. and Mrs. William G. Smith (Virginia Smith) and their sons, Tommy and Dick of North Hollywood—Also planning to come to Lincoln and complete the family circle, are Colonel and Mrs. Carl Ousley (Janet Smith) and their four children, of Albuquerque, N. Mex.

JUST HEARD about some new neighbors in Lincoln—They are Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Brill and their three children, Peter, Roger and Cynthia, who arrived from Great Neck, Long Island, N. Y., not too long ago to reside in Lincoln—At the moment Dr. and Mrs. Brill's address is 2735 Garfield, but we hear that their current project is the purchase of a home—so their address may be changed almost any day—

SOMEONE TOLD us that Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mutz Jr., and their children, Sandy and Susie, will be leaving Saturday for Colorado—Vacations, as you may suspect, interest each and every member of every family, but we think that Sandy Mutz takes top honors for being the most thrilled—Sandy's life up to now (he has only a few years to his credit) hasn't been exactly traveled—and his one fond hope and ambition was to go camping—in the mountains—So, for Sandy a dream will come true—the Mutz family is taking camping equipment which, we hope, will include a kit of home remedies for bugs, bites, colds and slow freezing.

ON THE homecomers list this morning are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walt and their son, Ren, who have just returned from a summer holiday at Pelican Lake, Minn.

CAN'T LET the dawn glow any older without news of a bride-to-be—Miss Frances Robinson, whose marriage to Richard Stehly will take place on Saturday, August 29. Hear that Miss Robinson was honored last Friday when Miss Barbara Weichel and Miss Peggy Mulvaney were hostesses to 12 guests at a dessert supper and potterty shower at the home of Miss Mulvaney.

ANOTHER bride-elect, Miss Darlene Stephenson of Omaha, whose marriage to Frank Prucka, Jr., also of Omaha, will take place on September 5, will be complimented on Saturday when Mrs. Charles Swingle entertains at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Lincoln Country club. Following luncheon the afternoon will be spent informally, and the soon-to-be bride will be presented with a linen shower.

Out of town guests at the party will include the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. E. G. Stephenson; her sister, Miss Kay Stephenson; Mrs. Frank Prucka, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. William C. Raapke, Miss Dorothy Raapke, all of Omaha, and Miss Polly Kennedy of Bartlett.

IN THE travel news this morning are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hyland and their daughter, Jeanne, who leave on Saturday, August 1, for Estes Park, Colo., where they will spend a month. At the end of the holiday Miss Hyland will go on to Colorado Springs where she will be a member of the public schools faculty the coming year.

A Guest

at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight D. Coble, for the last ten days has been Mrs. Robert Kasmarek, the former Halcyon Coble, Kappa Alpha Theta at the university. Mrs. Kasmarek journeyed to Lincoln from her home in Jonesville, Wis., on Wednesday, July 15, and will leave today to return to Wisconsin.

Just Between Us

—had always understood that it was a poor idea to allow leaves to stand in the gutters, but didn't know the reason until a local sheet metal expert pointed out the fact that this results in the formation of an acid that eats the paint and corrodes the metal. He even claimed that, if such water stands long enough in one spot and is ever injected into the eyes, a severe burn could be caused—and possibly even death.

—one of the most unusual shoes yet spotted in Lincoln is a pair of black felt ballet slippers with a round white patch on each pointed toe. On one patch is inscribed, "Stop" and on the other, "Go". And covering the rest of the shoes are different words scrawled in red.

—the modern maternity costume is invariably chic and becoming, but tops in both is one recently seen here in Lincoln. The black trousers were cut Chinese fashion—very tight and ending just below

ABWA Groups Hold Picnic

Members and guests of the Lincoln and Omaha chapters of the American Business Women's Association met at Linoma Beach Wednesday evening for an informal program and picnic supper.

An honored guest was Gertrude Maurer of Omaha, national president of the organization.

Following the supper, Mrs. Ann Payn, president of the Lincoln chapter, presided at a short business meeting, and Miss Charlene Moore of Lincoln awarded a prize to Lois Gumbel for submitting the prize-winning name, "The Telescope," for the club bulletin.

Group singing brought the program to a close.

Ike Takes Fight Against Aid Fund Cuts To Senate

'Country's Safety Is Involved'

... Bridges Is Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, declaring the country's safety is directly involved, carried to the Senate Thursday his thus far losing fight against major money slashes in his foreign aid program.

In a letter to Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Eisenhower expressed a conviction that "grave consequences" would follow from a major cut in the $5,138,922,227 he requested for foreign military and economic aid.

The House, ignoring a late-hour plea from the President, voted 283-115 Wednesday night to cut the program by $1,100,000,000, including $414,806,298 in leftover funds from previous appropriations.

The bill now is before the Senate committee, which may or may not restore some of the cuts which Eisenhower told a news conference Wednesday were too heavy for America's own security.

Security of Nation

Expressing "deep concern" in the matter, Eisenhower wrote Bridges:

"This program and these appropriations directly involve the security of our nation. The program is specifically directed toward strengthening the collective security of the free nations—in which the safety of our nation is inescapably involved. . . .

"Our country must exercise constructive and courageous leadership, for its own sake as well as for the sake of the other free nations. Invariably, if leadership falters in the face of great danger in a complex situation, the result is disastrous. . . .

"Deep cuts will certainly be received, on both sides of the Iron Curtain, as evidence of faltering."

The House cut included 800 million dollars in military aid and 300 million in economic and technical assistance.

Eisenhower conceded in his letter to Bridges that the requests for military aid were large, but he said they were large because "that is the size of the threat before us" and because the weapons of war are not cheap.

Mrs. Rose Coghill Dies Here At 84

Girl Put On Two Year Probation For Leaving Baby

Valaria Duensing, 18-year-old Beatrice girl, was placed on two-year probation to Lancaster County Probation Officer George Meyer Thursday by action of District Judge John Polk.

The girl pleaded guilty Wednesday to a charge of abandoning a dead human body. County authorities found a dead infant in the girl's apartment last week. She claimed the baby was stillborn July 6.

The girl had made her home in Beatrice with her parents and came to Lincoln last fall to work. She will remain in Lincoln, according to Meyer.

Korean Duty Pushes Aside Jury Service

There's one man called for jury duty in Lancaster County that just won't be able to serve this fall.

Sending his sincere regrets from Korea to Jury Commissioner George Meyer Thursday was Capt. Roy H. Reynolds, 1540 R. Reynolds, former dental instructor at the University of Nebraska, received one of more than 6,000 initial jury duty questionnaires in Korea where he is a dentist with the 25th Division Artillery.

Mrs. Reynolds had sent the blank on to the 37-year-old captain, surmised Meyer. This is the returned in the present jury call, first overseas jury blank to be according to Meyer, but on the last list answers came from all over the globe.

Meyer's office has 1,200 questionnaires still to send out in the jury list that is the largest ever known in Lancaster County.

No Protests Filed; OK To Discontinue Two Trains Looms

With no written protests and only one telephone call from a woman who said she was "considering" making a protest, the State Railway Commission started Thursday afternoon to prepare an order authorizing the C.B.&Q. Wednesday was the final day set for receiving protests. All mayors, Chambers of Commerce and newspapers in towns on the line had been notified of the railroad's request to discontinue the trains. The company action was based on loss of mail contracts amounting to about $1,000 a month.

Facilities for passengers, express and cream shipments will be provided on daily freight trains on the branch.

Chisox Yields To Boston, Lose Golden Opportunity

Bruins Hamper Lincoln Bid For First Division

DES MOINES (AP) — Don Vike hurled five-hit ball as the Bruins downed Lincoln, 4-1, Thursday, giving Des Moines its seventh victory in the last eight games.

Lincoln's loss, combined with Omaha's 6-1 victory over Sioux City, ended the Chiefs' short stay in fifth place. The locals are in sixth again.

The Chiefs went into Des Moines just two and a half games behind the fourth-place Bruins, but now trail Des Moines by three and a half.

Manager Lou Finney will throw either Andy Bush (6-6) or a Vince Carlson (0-1) against the Bruins' Dick Verbe (9-9) tonight.

The clinching blow for the Bruins was Dave Cunningham's 12th home run in the fifth inning. Des Moines added single runs in the sixth and seventh.

Lincoln scored its run in the fourth when Glenn McQuillen walked. Took second on a wild pitch and scored as Moose Wacker singled to right and Right Fielder John Magliolo's throw got away from Catcher El Tappe.

A double play choked off a Lincoln rally in the sixth. After a single by Danny Holden, an error by Shortstop Eddie Plank and a walk to Womack, Manager-Third Baseman Bruce Edwards turned Joe Rivich's grounder into a twin killing.

Buddy Thurlby's double chased home Chris Kittson in the Des Moines sixth and in the seventh Vike singled in Dave Cunningham.

Hurling for the Western League B-All-Stars will be Roger Brown, Munny; Jim Fox, Irving; Ron Swartz, Whittier, and Dale Grenier, F. Street.

Eastern League A team hurlers will be Duane Steffan, Northeast; Rudy Stoehr, Havelock; Dick Youncap, Antelope, and Jerry Perry, Randolph.

The Eastern League B club will have on its mound Jan Wall, Northeast; Harold Kelly, Peter Pan; Bryan Binning, Randolph; and Don Hesson, College View.

Balloting has started for the other positions on all four clubs. Results will be announced Sunday.

"In the event that some players are voted into positions and have also been selected as pitchers, there will be some adjusting done to make sure that all squads have their best players available for this All-Star game, Midget Commissioner Ken Greenwood said.

The teams will work out in Sherman field the day before and the morning before the game.

SPORTS EDITOR,
THE STAR

THE rumor factory is grinding again over in Des Moines, where the ridiculous idea was pursued two years ago that St. Joseph was going to supplant Lincoln in the Western League.

Now Bill Bryson, the Register scribe, reports that the league has received franchise bids from Salt Lake City, Utah; Albuquerque, N. M., and Lubbock, and Wichita, Kan., of the Western Association would also like to be in the Western League.

Albuquerque is publicizing its desire for a franchise, speculating that one or two present league members will collapse or that Omaha will draw an American Association berth in a realignment of higher clubs. What's this? Omaha, the noble city that isn't even drawing half its population in the little old Western League?

Wichita and Sioux City are the two teams on shaky ground. "Lincoln has erased most of the question mark that hung over its franchise before the Chiefs began winning a few weeks ago," writes Bryson, who is author of the Western League record book and knows as much about the loop as anyone.

During the first seven days of their recent home stand, the Chiefs pulled in 14,487 customers—or an average of 2,069 per night.

At that average, given a weather break in early season, the Chiefs might have shaded 140,000 for the season. As present matters stand, the Sherman Field gang could possibly hit 100,000 for the season—if real baseball hysteria struck, 90,000 would be a safer bet.

The Chiefs appear likely to eclipse all Sherman Field attendance marks, except those set in the pennant winning year of 1949 and the Bobby Shantz year of 1948.

McCOOK, Neb. (AP) — Midget baseballers in McCook are talking about the walking ball game.

Loper's Grocery defeated the Radio Station KBL team last night 16 to 4 and there was not a hit during the entire game. All of the scores came as the result of walks.

Quarter-Finals Spot Won By Spangler At Broadmoor

Lincoln Star Special
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — Lincoln's Dick Spangler advanced to the quarter-finals of the Broadmoor Invitational Golf Tournament Thursday by defeating Randy Carey of Denver, 1 up.

Friday he will meet Dr. W. A. Colton, Colorado Springs. Colton advanced to the quarter-finals by upsetting 1951 Broadmoor Champ, Bob Goldwater, 4 and 3.

Don Pegler Jr., Lincoln, beat Russell Brown, Oklahoma City, 5 and 4, to enter the semi-finals of the third flight. Bob Lau, Lincoln, defeated Gerry Phipps of Denver 4 and 2 to enter the semi-finals of the second flight.

Don Pegler Sr. scored a one up on the 19th over James Beattie, Phoenix, to advance into the semi-finals of the Senior Championship division of the Broadmoor Invitational Golf Tournament Thursday.

He will meet Frank Patterson, Dallas, who defeated Frank Norville, Oklahoma City, one up on the 20th.

Upsets were the rule rather than the exception in Thursday's play. Medalist Don January, Dallas, Tex., was defeated by Fred Brown of Los Angeles, a member of the Stanford University NCAA championship team, 2 up.

The only favorite to survive the disastrous second round was E. J. Rogers Jr., of Oklahoma City, who beat Major J. Aitken of Colorado Springs, 3 and 2.

Quarterfinal championship pairings: Brown vs. J. P. Morrell; Colton vs. Spangler; Rogers vs. Skid Pirtle; Marion Hickey vs. Phipple.

When Cronin and Owner Tom Yawkey saw Williams at the All-Star game last week in Cincinnati, both assured him they were eager to have him rejoin the club as soon as possible.

Contacted by telephone at the Naval Medical Center in Bethesda, Md., Williams told the Boston Post:

"Tell the Boston fans to get their lungs warmed up. I suppose they'll have their horns and their bazos warmed up again. It looks like I'll be back."

Asked if he would report to the Red Sox as soon as he was discharged, Williams replied:

"Whatever the Red Sox say, I'll do. I don't know if I'll be able to help anybody. I figure it will be a month before I'll really be ready."

When Cronin was informed of the conversation, he told the Post:

"The minute I hear Ted's discharge is official, I'll talk it over with him. We want him back, even though we know he has had a tough time and will have to get in condition."

Gray needed help in the ninth from Steve Gromek, who pitched well enough to send Washington down to its 11th loss in 12 games.

In the opener, the score was tied four times before Boone crashed his game winning homer. Harvey Kuenn had reached first on an error and Johnny Pesky had singled preceding Boone's 13 homer, which sailed into the left center field seats 400 feet away.

Early Wynn was the winning pitcher, allowing only six hits in scoring his 10th victory against seven defeats.

New York's two runs came in the eighth inning when Catcher Yogi Berra hit his 16th homer with Mickey Mantle on base.

The Detroit Tigers, making a bid to climb out of the cellar, swept a doubleheader from the stumbling Washington Senators—9-6 in the first game on Ray Boone's three-run homer in the 10th inning, and 5-4 in the nightcap on Jerry Priddy's key two-run single.

Priddy's single climaxed a three run burst in the fifth inning and gave the Tigers a 4-2 lead—which they held for Ted Gray's fifth victory against 11 losses.

Cleveland Bops Yanks, 10-2; Tigers Howl Again

From Press Dispatches
THE Chicago White Sox, handcuffed by Skinny Brown's four-hitter, Thursday blew a chance to gain on the faltering New York Yankees when they dropped a 4-3 decision to the Boston Red Sox at Comiskey Park in Chicago.

With the Yankees losing at Cleveland, 10-2, the White Sox remained in second place, four and one-half games out of first.

Brown, a former White Soxer, was touched for two runs on no hits in the second inning, but then buckled down to hold the Pale Hose hitless from the fourth until Jim Rivera's ninth-inning homer.

Brown now has a 10-2 record. The defeat was draped on the White Sox pitching enigma, Saul Rogovin, who was belted for a two-run homer by Hoot Evers in the fifth and yielded a third run in the sixth on Tom Ump-hill's single and Jim Piersall's triple.

Reliever Harry Dorish was touched for a ninth-inning Boston run when Sam Mele lost Evers' fly in the sun for a double. Dick Gernert sacrificed, and George Kell's squeeze bunt nudged across Evers.

Shortstop Milt Bolling of Boston suffered a severe laceration tear in his left ankle in the fifth inning sliding into second base. He was taken to Mercy Hospital where it was reported he would be sidelined the rest of the current Red Sox road trip.

Brown's biggest trouble came in the second when he walked three batters to fill the bases. Two White Sox runs then scored on Rogovin's fly and a wild pitch by Brown.

The Cleveland Indians continued to humble the league-leading New York Yankees by shelling them, 10-2, before a paid attendance of 20,141.

It was the sixth time in a row that the Indians beat New York. Three Cleveland homers contributed to the victory.

Third Baseman Al Rosen hit his 25th home run and First Baseman Luke Easter and Shortstop George Strickland also hit homers.

Cleveland blasted starting Pitcher Tom Gorman and reliever Art Schallack for 14 hits.

Early Wynn was the winning pitcher, allowing only six hits in scoring his 10th victory against seven defeats.

New York's two runs came in the eighth inning when Catcher Yogi Berra hit his 16th homer with Mickey Mantle on base.

Wilson Hints Of New Law On A-Weapon Development

QUANTICO, Va. — (INS)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson dropped a broad hint Thursday night that new legislation might be needed to give the military a greater part in the development of the awesome new atomic weapons.

The defense secretary spoke to more than 100 of the nation's top military and foreign affairs policy makers at a behind-the-scenes conference. He stressed the need for what he termed "improved working relations" between the Defense Department and the civilian-controlled Atomic Energy Commission.

In the version of Wilson's talk made public, there was only a brief reference to the problems surrounding the development of new tactical nuclear weapons such as the atomic cannon.

But defense aids privately admitted that there is considerable concern over the continued monopoly of control which civilians have by law over all atomic weapons.

Defense aids said that "we have gone a long way since the Hiroshima A-bomb."

They said that the development of smaller A-bombs that can be carried by aircraft-carrier-borne planes and such weapons as the A-cannon have raised entirely new problems in the field of nuclear weapons.

They said that, in contrast to the original A-bomb which could only be carried in a B-29 bomber, the new smaller bombs can be transported by jet aircraft.

They also referred to the record progress being made in the development of atomic energy for the propulsion of submarines, aircraft carriers and even airplanes.

It was stressed that the military believes that the time has come when there should be a closer dovetailing of efforts between the men who have to use tactical A-weapons and those in the civilian field who have been developing them.

Leatherneck Unit Will Go On Maneuvers

Reserve members of Marine Reserve Fighter Squadron 113, stationed at the Lincoln Naval Air Station, will be flown by Marine transport planes Saturday to El Toro Marine base, Santa Ana, Calif., for 15-day annual maneuvers.

Reveille for the 72 enlisted men and 14 officers will sound at 2:30 a.m. Saturday, with take-off scheduled for 5:15 a.m. Three transport planes will be used. Pilots will fly 11 F8F "Bearcat" fighters to El Toro from Lincoln.

Other personnel will include 19 members of the Marine Corps detachment, of whom some already have departed on an advanced party.

Emphasis on training at the El Toro base will be on close air support, climaxed by a mass air maneuver in which 15 reserve squadrons, including Lincoln, will participate.

This will be the Squadron 113's first annual maneuver away from its Lincoln station since July, 1950.

Back from 30-day "boot camp" at the Memphis (Tenn.) Naval Air Station were 30 other enlisted men of the squadron. The Marine reservists, without prior boot training or military service, were returned to Lincoln Thursday afternoon by air.

State's September Draft Quota Is 255

Nebraska's draft quota of 255 men for September and 268 for August is just about half what they were last year for the same two months, according to Gen. Guy N. Henninger, state selective service director.

Gen. Henninger pointed out that the draft calls for August and September of 1952 were for 495 and 567, respectively.

The general said both of the next two month's quotas will go to the army. In July the state's quota came to 240.

Services For Drowned Youth, Donald Riggins, To Be Monday

Funeral services for Donald Wayne Riggins, 13, will be held at 3 p.m. Monday at Umbergers Chapel, with Brig. Charles Ward officiating.

Pallbearers will be Dean Burling, Eddie Pillard, Larry Woodward, Robert Greder, Charles Greder and Darold Baade. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

The Riggins boy drowned Wednesday afternoon in a farm pond, one-half mile from the family's trailer home on the outskirts of Malcom.

One of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riggins, he was found after 30 firemen and neighbors had dragged the pond for more than three hours.

The boy's body was found by Lloyd Biggs of Malcom as he waded neck-deep on the end of a 25-man dragline. Earlier attempts at boat-dragging were unsuccessful.

Donald's disappearance was first reported by his 6-year-old sister, Virginia. The children had gone to the pond to try out a homemade wooden raft. Virginia said Donald left her to go after fishing rods and disappeared. She ran home and told her mother that she thought her brother drowned.

A Lincoln fire department boat was summoned to the scene.

The boy's father, treated for shock at St. Elizabeth Hospital,

Bids Received Second Time On Fire Truck

The city Thursday received bids for the second time on an aerial ladder fire truck with booster pump for the new Southeast fire station.

The second calling for the bids was required when specifications for a 100 foot ladder were objected to by several companies who manufactured only 85-foot ladder units with self-contained boosters. The initial bids requested were answered only by American LaFrance.

Three firms, LaFrance, Seagrave Corp., and Highway Equipment and Supply Co. offered bids on the second call. LaFrance bid $37,772 with an alternate of $38,672 on the 100-foot ladder type with auxiliary equipment of $3,317 and an alternate of $3,677. If all desired items are included, the bid total would amount to $42,349.

Seagrave, bidding on the 85-foot ladder, bid $38,670 including auxiliaries. On the 85-foot ladder truck, LaFrance bid $35,995 plus $3,317 for auxiliary equipment or $39,312 with an alternate bid of $38,895 plus $3,677 or $40,572. No bid was offered by Seagrave on the 100 foot ladder truck with booster.

Highway Equipment and Supply bid $36,900 on tractor drawn equipment without pump but with the 85-foot ladder.

Short: Draft Likely To Stay At 23,000 A Month For Year

'Truce Might Reduce Calls'

WASHINGTON (INS)—Chairman Dewey Short (R-Mo) of the House Armed Services Committee, said Thursday that draft calls in the coming year probably will remain at about 23,000 men per month.

Short made the statement after conferring with Defense Department and selective service officials.

He said he held the conference "as a result of what happened to be differences of views" expressed by Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and Draft Director Lewis B. Hershey over the size of future draft calls.

Many Factors
The House leader said that many factors have to be considered in projecting future calls. He said that if Army enlistment or re-enlistment rates change there would be a change in monthly call-ups.

He also declared that "a truce in Korea might further reduce calls because a truce would then reduce a so-called pipeline by approximately 51,000 men for the Army." The pipeline, he said, includes men in transit and in hospitals because of Korean operations.

Short concluded: "The effect of this upon draft calls will depend upon the manner in which this pipeline of 51,000 men will be reduced by a change in the rotation system adopted in the Far East and the speed with which it is put into operation." Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said this week the present draft rate of 23,000 men a month may be reduced temporarily to 15,000 or 18,000 three months after a Korean armistice.

However, he said the reduction would be possible only if voluntary enlistments remain at a high level and the world situation does not worsen.

Short's announcement bore out the prediction made by Assistant Defense Secretary for Manpower John A. Hannah Wednesday.

Hannah said the draft must be continued and commented: "I do not see any material reduction in manpower requirements for the indefinite future."

"We are going to maintain our defenses so long as there is a threat to this nation. All this talk about ending the draft and reducing our quota requirements is just a lot of wishful thinking."

Senate Group OKs Morton To Head Division

WASHINGTON (P)—A Senate Judiciary Subcommittee Thursday approved the nomination of Perry William Morton of Lincoln, Neb., to be an assistant attorney general.

Morton, 46-year-old lawyer, would be in charge of the Justice Department's lands division. Sen. Griswold (R-Neb) recommended Morton. The senator said Morton has "a fine reputation in Nebraska both as to character and ability and is recognized as perhaps the finest title attorney in Nebraska."

Chairman Langer (R-ND) informed the committee that Sen. Butler (R-Neb) also supported Morton's nomination.

Morton attended the University of Nebraska where he knew Herbert Brownell, now attorney general and a native of Lincoln. Morton also is a friend of J. Lee Rankin, another Lincolnite who now is an assistant attorney general.

Morton told the senators he was admitted to the Nebraska bar in 1931 and engaged in general practice for four years. Since 1935 and until a year ago he was attorney for a life insurance company's Nebraska office and served also as its assistant manager. For the last year he has practiced law.
